PATIENT FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Thank you for choosing the Arrhythmia Center of Northern California.

The following financial policies apply to all patients and are a condition of receiving services from the Arrhythmia Center of Northern California.

- Co-payments are due at the time of services.
- We will bill your insurance provider. It is your responsibility to ensure our office is informed of any insurance changes, change of address, telephone, etc.
- Should you receive a bill from our office the balance is due on presentation. For your convenience we accept checks, cash, debit cards, credit cards including; Master card, Visa. Payments can be made in the office, by phone, or by mail.
- If you have financial difficulties, please contact our Billing Specialist Liz Gibbs at (530) 893-8806 to establish an acceptable payment plan.
- Our staff will assist when possible with billing problems. However, ultimately dealing with your insurer and understanding your coverage is your responsibility.

Walter Kusumoto, M.D., M.P.H.
